Violence Prevention Task Force Seeking Nominations

August 4, 2014, Monroe, NC – The Violence Prevention Task Force of Union County is seeking nominations for its 6th Annual Prevention and Intervention Service Awards.

The Violence Prevention Task Force is committed to providing a community-based team dedicated to the prevention of child abuse, domestic violence and sexual violence. The team reaches out to the community through education and awareness ensuring violence, in any form, is not tolerated in Union County.

Awards will be given in 12 different categories - Advocate, Faith Community, First Responder (Fire, EMS, Dispatch), Law Enforcement, Legal Professional, Medical Professional, Public/Elected Official, School Personnel, Social Services, Student, Survivor and Volunteer.

Do you know of someone who has worked to stop violence in our community? Request a nomination form by calling Ashley Lantz of Turning Point at 704-288-1810 or email alantz@turntoday.net. The deadline to submit a nomination form is Aug. 29.

The Violence Prevention Task Force of Union County will be holding its 6th Annual Prevention and Intervention Awards Luncheon on Oct. 23 from 11:30 a.m. – 1 p.m. at Central United Methodist Church.
