By providing the following written disclosure, Union County intends that market participants receive and use it for purposes of the independent registered municipal advisor exemption to the SEC Municipal Advisor Rule.

Union County has retained Davenport to serve as registered municipal advisor. Union County is represented by and will rely on Davenport to provide advice on proposals received from financial services firms concerning the issuance of municipal securities and municipal financial products.

If a proposal received from a market participant will be seriously considered by Union County, the document will be shared with Davenport. Union County will, in its sole direction, decide which proposals will be seriously considered and shared with Davenport.
